

General terms and conditions related to the use of lockers of Hof University of the Applied Sciences

1. Lockers are used at the user's own risk. The university grants the use of the lockers free of charge, but is not liable for the items stored within.
2. Please remember to note down your PIN number and the number of your locker!
3. Do not store valuables in your locker that you might urgently need (e.g. keys, medication, etc.).
4. For your own security, please leave your name and address in your locker so that you are able to prove your identity should an emergency opening be necessary.
5. Lockers may be used for a limited period of time. All lockers are cleared twice a year (at the end of each examination period) by the university in order to allow other students to use the lockers. Users are informed of this by e-mail and by posters displayed at university. The lockers in the library are an exception to this; these must be cleared daily by 6pm.
6. On certain occasions (e.g. before the boom party or in the case of emergency openings), your locker may be opened. If you use a locker, you consent to these openings.
7. Anyone wishing to arrange an emergency opening (e.g. due to a forgotten PIN, or a blocked CampusCard for short-term lockers in red or long-term lockers in blue) must make a valid case for the opening, and identify themselves by presenting official identification. In addition, a fee of €10.00 per emergency opening must be paid to the university to cover the administrative costs.
8. The university is not liable for loss, damage, destruction or other loss of items stored in the lockers.
